The Threat Against the Mormons. To the Edltor of The Evening Post

Sir: Your editorial of Saturday evenon the anti-Mormon bill that has just passed the Senate, evipces the fact that you are not ready to countenance a law that looks to the confiscation of a re-that looks to the confiscation of a re-ligious community? property because some of its members are alleged crim-louis.

The proposition to put fourteen United States officials into a re-ligious corporation, against thir teen honest innatice avowedly to outwote the representatives of the rightful owners of the property, and thereby to sell in the name of the United States government, substance that belongs to the Mormon community a justly as Trinity Charch belongs to the Protestant Episcopal Church, seems a combrous and expensive mode of rob-bery.

linious community's property became some of its members are alleged orim to the proposition to put fourteen United States officials into a religious corporation, against thirteen honest tanatics avowedly to outwork the representatives of the rightful owners of the property and thereby to sed, in the name of the rightful owners of the property and thereby to sed, in the name of the United States government, substance that belongs to the Mormon community as lostly as Trinity Clarch belongs to the Eroleana Episcopal Church, seems a camptons and expensive mode of robbe for the state of t friedds and supporters of the perse-cuted.

To pass a law that would compel the public registration of all marriages in Utah and the other Territories, so that the Mormon so-called celestial marriages could not be kept secret, and thus facilitate the trial and conviction of those guilty of an indictable offence, would be the work of statesmen. But to enact this infamous measure, which would turn loose upon an honest, in-dustrious, religious community a band of legalized, salaried robbers, would be something that ought to cause the modern Turk to hang his head in guilty shaine.
